Vendor Question	Answers
ELITE BR72 – ELITE BRIDGE 72"	The referenced vendor is Wright Equipment for comparison purposes only and all functional equivalents will be reviewed.
Under the deviations section of the IFP it states that "Any deviations from specifications and requirements herein by bidder may subject proposal to disqualification." Does this mean that deviations are allowed? Specifically, we are dealers for different brands and not the one that is in the proposal. Usually, government bids allow for replacement products as long as they meet or exceed the specifications on the bid. Are you allowing replacements? We use Promaxima for all strength equipment and we believe them to be the best product on the market. We just installed a brand-new gym for the public health building in Raleigh, NC that has all Promaxima, as well as 10-15 high schools in the state of VA that we have used Promaxima for.	You should be fine
